

ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE, PARTNERSHIPS

Overview:

Mission put brands In Culture, with the right ideas, perfectly executed:
www.thisismission.com

Mission has an exciting and unique opportunity for a candidate, with a passion for celebrity, influencer and entertainment to join its UK Partnerships Team. The successful candidate will help execute a cross section of partnerships and talent relations, and will help to secure talent for multi-faceted and channeled campaigns for our clients, spanning the fashion, food and beverage, festival, music, sport and lifestyle sectors.

Candidates must be keen to cultivate strong industry relationships with talent, management and relevant third parties and have a genuine passion and interest in popular culture.

Mission needs you to demonstrate:

- An excellent knowledge of talent and influencers across all industries, in particular, the music industry
- A strong understanding of social platforms
- An understanding of brand communications and the practice of influencer engagement
- Strong written and verbal communication skills
- An ability to work well in a fast paced environment and maintain high quality work and results throughout
- Be self-directed with the ability to work across multiple accounts
